

A man with a nose ring and a black leather jacket is DJing at a brick venue. He is looking down at his hands on the mixer. In the background, there is a large window with a brick archway and a laptop with the Apple logo. The scene is dimly lit with warm, ambient lighting.

EXPERIENTIAL CURATOR

Kaaos Jones is a multidimensional creative with over 20 years of experience blending music, culture, and strategy into unforgettable experiences. A mainstay in the Los Angeles nightlife and wedding scene, his signature cross-genre mixing and “dance floor finesse” have made him a sought-after DJ for everything from high-energy club sets to luxury private events and major corporate activations.

But Kaaos isn’t just behind the decks—he’s behind the vision. As a Creative Strategist and Experiential Curator, he partners with brands, creatives, and production teams to design culture-forward moments that move people—whether through sound, style, or storytelling. His creative influence extends into television, film, fashion, and digital media, where he crafts immersive, vibe-driven narratives that resonate across platforms. Built on culture. Driven by style. Powered by passion.
